

I Am Her

An invitation-only evening for the women who lead · Friday 28th August 2026 · Milton Keynes

A CORPORATE PARTNERSHIP OVERVIEW BY EVENT PERFECT GLOBAL

Nobody Built Them a Room. Until Now.

Women aren't burning out because they're weak. They're burning out because nobody built them a room.

Somewhere between the boardroom and the school run — between back-to-back meetings and the family WhatsApp group — the women holding everything together quietly stop taking care of themselves.

Not because they don't want to. Because no one created space for them to.

Most companies invest in performance. Very few invest in the woman delivering it.

I Am Her exists to change that. Not through seminars or tick-box initiatives — but through a room designed entirely around her.

A woman who feels well leads differently. A woman who feels confident speaks differently. A woman who feels seen shows up differently — at work, at home, and in every room she enters.

The Evening – What to Expect

100 invited women. One extraordinary evening. Every detail considered with intention.

100 Invited Women Only	28 Aug Friday 2026	Milton Keynes United Kingdom

By Invitation Not purchased

 Champagne & Curated Wine A beautifully considered drinks experience throughout the evening	 Editorial Photography Professional portraits capturing each woman at her best	 Aesthetic & Wellbeing Consultations Expert touchpoints designed to restore and elevate
 Luxury Brand Moments Carefully selected lifestyle and beauty experiences in-room	 Meaningful Conversation A slower, softer, more intentional room

Your employee will leave feeling restored, confident and genuinely seen — and they will talk about it.

 Invitations are issued, not purchased. This is a curated room — and every detail reflects that.

Why Your Organisation Should Be in This Room

This is not a sponsorship. It is a strategic investment in the women already inside your organisation — and in how your brand is seen by the most influential women in Milton Keynes.

Talent Retention

Women who feel seen and invested in stay longer. This is a meaningful signal that your organisation values them beyond their output

DEI & CSR Credentials

A tangible, visible action that supports your diversity, equity and inclusion commitments — not a policy, a real experience

Employer Brand

Be known as the organisation that sent its women to the room. That reputation travels — especially in a city like Milton Keynes

Employee Recognition

Give high-performing women a reward that goes beyond a bonus — an experience they will genuinely remember

The organisations that invest in their women's confidence, wellbeing and visibility will be the ones those women choose to stay with.

📌 This is for every sector. Financial services, healthcare, technology, legal, retail, education — if your organisation employs ambitious women, this is for you.

The Room Is Filling. Quietly.

This is the inaugural edition of I Am Her — 100 women, one evening, Milton Keynes. Corporate allocations are limited and conversations are already underway.

100 Women. No More.

The capacity is fixed and deliberately intimate. Once the room is full, it is full

Inaugural Event

Be part of the very first edition — founding organisations will always be remembered as where it began

Early Conversations Only

We are speaking with a select number of organisations now, ahead of the public waitlist opening. Early conversations receive priority

"The room is filling quietly. And we think that says everything." — Founder, Event Perfekt Global Partner and host reveals are coming soon. Organisations in conversation now will have the strongest visibility and the best choice of packages.

Let's Talk

If this feels aligned with your organisation and the women inside it — we would love to hear from you. No hard sell. Just a conversation.

Individual Seat · £1,500

One curated place for one woman from your team — ideal for recognition, reward or wellbeing investment

Corporate Table · £10,000

Eight places for your team or leadership cohort — full evening experience included. That's £1,250 per person — a £2,000 saving versus individual seats

Bespoke Partnership · From £25,000

Your brand in the room. Includes: a corporate table of 8, logo placement across event communications, a dedicated in-room brand moment, social media recognition before and after the event, editorial photography featuring your branding, and priority invitation allocation for your nominated women. Limited to 3 partners only.

Many organisations have DEI, wellbeing or L&D budgets available now. This investment qualifies under all three.
