

Event Perfekt Global Ltd

Customer Complaints Procedure Policy

Effective Date: 01 September 2025

Review Date: 01 September 2026

1. Introduction

Event Perfekt Global Ltd (“the Company”) is committed to delivering high-quality services and maintaining strong relationships with clients, stakeholders, and event participants. We recognise that, despite our best efforts, concerns or dissatisfaction may occasionally arise. This policy outlines our structured approach to handling complaints fairly, promptly, and transparently.

We view complaints as an opportunity to learn, improve, and strengthen our delivery architecture. Our procedure is designed to ensure that all complaints are addressed with professionalism, empathy, and accountability.

2. Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to:

- Provide a clear and accessible process for submitting complaints.
- Ensure complaints are investigated thoroughly and impartially.
- Resolve issues in a timely and respectful manner.
- Identify trends and implement service improvements.

3. Scope

This policy applies to:

- Clients and commissioning bodies.
- Event attendees and participants.
- Suppliers, contractors, and delivery partners.
- Members of the public interacting with our services.

It covers complaints related to:

- Service quality or delivery standards.
- Staff conduct or communication.
- Event logistics, accessibility, or safety.

- Contractual obligations or performance.

4. Principles

Our complaints procedure is guided by the following principles:

- Accessibility: Complaints can be submitted verbally, in writing, or via email.
- Transparency: All complaints are acknowledged and tracked.
- Fairness: Investigations are impartial and evidence based.
- Confidentiality: Personal information is protected throughout the process.
- Responsiveness: Timely resolution is prioritised.

5. Submitting a Complaint

Complaints may be submitted to the Company via:

- Email: Info@eventperfekt.com
- Written letter: 20, Wenlock Road, London, N1 7GU

Complainants should provide:

- Their name and contact details.
- A clear description of the issue.
- Relevant dates, locations, and supporting evidence.
- Desired outcome or resolution (if applicable).

Anonymous complaints will be considered where sufficient detail is provided.

6. Complaint Handling Process

Stage 1 – Acknowledgement

- Complaints are acknowledged within two working days.
- A reference number is issued for tracking.

Stage 2 – Investigation

- The relevant manager or team lead conducts a review.
- Evidence is gathered, and parties involved may be interviewed.
- A written response is provided within ten working days.

Stage 3 – Escalation

- If the complainant is dissatisfied, the issue may be escalated to senior management.
- A final review is conducted, and a resolution is offered within five working days.

Stage 4 – External Referral

- If unresolved, the complainant may refer the matter to the commissioning body or relevant ombudsman.

7. Resolution and Follow-Up

Where a complaint is upheld, corrective actions may include:

- Apology and explanation.
- Service adjustments or remedial actions.
- Staff training or disciplinary measures.
- Contractual review or renegotiation.

All complaints are logged in our internal register and reviewed quarterly to identify patterns and improvement opportunities.

8. Unreasonable or Vexatious Complaints

While we aim to treat all complaints seriously, we reserve the right to limit engagement with individuals whose behaviour is abusive, repetitive, or unfounded. In such cases, the complainant will be informed of the decision and directed to external resolution channels.

9. Monitoring and Review

This policy is reviewed annually or sooner if required by operational changes or feedback trends. The Complaints Lead is responsible for monitoring effectiveness and recommending improvements.
