

Event Perfekt Global Ltd

Modern Slavery Policy

Effective Date: 15 August 2025

Review Date: 15 August 2026

1. Introduction

Event Perfekt Global Ltd ("the Company") is committed to preventing modern slavery and human trafficking in all aspects of our operations and supply chains. We recognise our responsibility under the Modern Slavery Act 2015 to take proactive steps to identify, mitigate, and eliminate risks of exploitation.

This policy outlines our approach to ensuring ethical practices across our business and delivery partnerships. We operate in sectors where subcontracting and temporary labour are common, and we take extra care to ensure that all individuals are treated with dignity, respect, and fairness.

2. Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to:

- Define our stance on modern slavery and human trafficking.
- Establish procedures for supplier due diligence and risk assessment.
- Promote transparency and accountability across our operations.
- Ensure compliance with UK legislation and public sector expectations.

3. Scope

This policy applies to all employees, contractors, suppliers, and delivery partners. It covers all services provided by the Company, including event management, logistics, procurement, and stakeholder engagement.

4. Definition of Modern Slavery

Modern slavery encompasses:

- Forced labour: individuals compelled to work against their will.
- Human trafficking: movement of people for exploitation.
- Debt bondage: working to repay debts under unfair conditions.
- Child labour: employment of children in violation of legal standards.
- Domestic servitude: exploitation of individuals in private households.

5. Our Commitments

Event Perfekt Global Ltd commits to:

- Zero tolerance for modern slavery in any form.
- Conducting supplier due diligence prior to engagement.
- Including anti-slavery clauses in all contracts and agreements.
- Monitoring labour practices throughout the delivery lifecycle.
- Reporting concerns to relevant authorities without delay.

6. Supplier and Contractor Expectations

All suppliers and contractors must:

- Confirm compliance with the Modern Slavery Act 2015.
- Provide evidence of ethical labour practices.
- Disclose any subcontracting arrangements.
- Cooperate with audits and spot checks.
- Report any suspected exploitation immediately.

Failure to comply may result in termination of contracts and notification to regulatory bodies.

7. Risk Assessment and Mitigation

We assess modern slavery risks across:

- Labour-intensive services (e.g. event setup, cleaning, security).
- Overseas supply chains and imported goods.
- Subcontracted delivery models.

Mitigation measures include:

- Vetting suppliers through pre-qualification questionnaires.
- Reviewing employment terms and working conditions.
- Avoiding high-risk sourcing regions unless fully verified.
- Maintaining direct oversight of in-house delivery teams.

8. Training and Awareness

All staff receive training on modern slavery awareness, including:

- Recognising signs of exploitation.

- Understanding reporting procedures.
- Promoting ethical procurement and delivery practices.

Training is refreshed annually and updated following any legislative changes.

9. Reporting and Escalation

Suspected cases of modern slavery must be reported to the Compliance Lead. Reports may be made confidentially and will be investigated promptly. Where necessary, concerns will be escalated to:

- The Modern Slavery Helpline.
- Local authorities or law enforcement.
- Client safeguarding teams.

All reports are documented and handled with discretion.

10. Monitoring and Review

This policy is reviewed annually or sooner if required by operational changes or emerging risks. The Compliance Lead is responsible for monitoring effectiveness and recommending improvements.

11. Contact Information

For questions or to report concerns related to modern slavery, contact:

Compliance Lead

Event Perfekt Global Ltd

Grace Nwokoye